COMIC CON 2016 HAS COME AND GONE...

By the time you're reading this, the San Diego Comic Con will be over and done with, hopefully without any serious issues or occurrences (I'm hoping). It's a trip I take every year, and one that I have shared with my longtime friend, Chris Cade. For well over a decade we've made the Comic Con trip together, travelling from Sacramento to San Diego, stopping along the way in LA to visit Chris' sister, take in a comedy show or talk show taping, and visit local LA shops like Meltdown and Jungle Anime (a great selection of Godzilla and Ultraman toys!).

In San Diego, we've always had a great time roaming the convention floor, drinking beers at local bars, and checking out the cool panels in Hall H when we can get in. We got into Hall H last year on the right day, and wound up getting the full Star Wars experience, including an Episode 7 panel with the cast, and a side trip for the entire audience to an outdoor Star Wars concert with the San Diego Symphony. We couldn't believe our luck to be a part of the event, and couldn't stop telling people about the experience the rest of the weekend!

This year, it's all going to be different. As some of you may remember, Chris suffered a stroke in October of last year, and has been under constant care following his ordeal. He has been making some progress in his therapy, but he still has a tough road to travel before he can once again be on his own without the help of caregivers. So because he's still got a ways to go to recovery, he can't take off on long trips yet... and San Diego is a long, tough trip to be sure. Chris really wanted to make it to Comic Con this year, and in his heart and mind, he was ready; ready to go again this year and get back to life as it was before.

And I know that he will make that return to Comic Con someday... hopefully next year. Comic Con 2016 isn't going to be the same without him there, and I can't help but feel a little guilty that I'm going without him. But I think he understands and knows that as soon as he's ready, I'll be there to help him enjoy Comic Con again like old times.

Your Pal @ PREVIEWS,

Marty

GABRANTH

STL017737
Release: NOV 2016
SRP $149.99

Gabranth is a Judge Magister, one of the highest ranking members of the Archadian Empire's military, acknowledged by his compatriots as someone whose extraordinary abilities have been well vetted.

With this in mind, our designers have put great thought into recreating his owerful presence and majestic stance. They have taken pains to recreate the characteristics of his armor, emphasizing its realistic finish. The ornate details etched into it exude an inexplicable power, accentuating Gabranth's eminence. Through the impressive sculpt work, one can almost feel its weight. The paintwork on the armor involves careful application of a stain which recreates the look of forged steel, and is finished with a satin sheen emphasizing its polish.

The click-ball jointing on the pauldrons, as well as the flexible materials used in the cape and body, are the result of great considerations made for poseability. Additionally, various interchangeable parts have been included to allow for a wide range of freedom in how the figure is displayed. This PLAY ARTS -KAI- is a masterpiece, exhibiting the level of quality our designers constantly strive to achieve.

EDGE ESSENTIALS

- Kodoja Volume 1: Terror Mountain Showdown TP (APR161998)
- Kodoja Vol. 2 #1 (See Page 468 to Order!)

Please tell us a bit about yourself!

Gladly! I write a comic called Kodoja (STL018656) as part of a creative team with two incredibly talented guys: Rory Smith (interior art) and Lance Pilgrim (graphic design and covers). I'm also in a band — Big Pimp Jones — we've released funk 45s and LPs on various record labels for the past ten years. I've been into comics for more than 30 years — the comics that got me hooked were Secret Wars #4 and Amazing Spider-Man #252, and it's blossomed from there. I love stuff from the early-to-mid-'70s — Kung fu, Giant Monster movies, and definitely the music! I'm a collector as well — Godzilla stuff, comics (of course) and records/vinyl.

What are your favorite hprojects you've contributed to over the past decade?

On the Comics side, it's pretty much Kodoja and only Kodoja. We're still relatively new to this — started out self-publishing it in 2012 and working conventions to spread the word — after a few years we connected with the guys at 215 Ink to get the word out even more! We're really proud of the book so far and are just getting started regarding the overall narrative. Another favorite project is the music to Kodoja — Kodoja has a soundtrack for you to enjoy as you read or on your own time (it's a fusion of Godzilla movie-style music and funk)!

What are you currently working on?

We're continuing work on Kodoja — I imagine this is pretty normal, but I'm writing ahead on the story (currently writing the 'Volume 3' story arc) while Lance and Rory finalize the art, layouts and covers on Volume 2. The first story arc — Kodoja Volume 1 — is available right now, with Volume 2 getting underway soon. As I write this I'm also working on the music to the next story arc (Volume 2) and preparing a panel to present at a convention on Economics and how they tie to Godzilla films. The Kodoja creative team is also working on a second book (not involving Giant Monsters) that we hope to share with people soon!

What fun titles are you reading?

Infinite Kung Fu (MAY111197 / Top Shelf/ IDW)—I don't know if this book is still considered indie due to acquisitions, but I've loved this book since the self-published run of Kagan McLeod's. It is a fantastic, crazily-violent throwback to vintage '70s Kung Fu and Shaw Brothers flicks, with delightfully insane plot twists and Kung Fu for DAYS!

Ultraman Manga (JUN151638 / Viz Media). Yes, that Ultraman! This book takes the original Ultraman franchise and jumps it into the present, aging the characters and everything. It's a great update on a childhood favorite for many people and plays out like an Ultraman / Iron Man fusion with Shin Hayata's son taking center stage. In my family, people fight over who gets to read it second… after me, of course!

Learn How to Use PREVIEWS to Order From Your Comic Shop!

USER'S GUIDE

There's a lot of awesome comics and products to look through in PREVIEWS. "A lot" might be a bit of an understatement, as each month's catalog is filled with hundreds and hundreds of pages of upcoming comics and related merchandise! It can be easy to accidentally overlook a new series you've been dying to read or a figure you've been pining to add to your shelf when there's so many things to browse. That's why we've put together this guide to help you learn how to use PREVIEWS like a pro to order the awesome titles and products you want!

WHAT EXACTLY IS PREVIEWS?

PREVIEWS is part catalog, part magazine (we call it a Mag-a-log!) of monthly listings of all of the upcoming comic titles and related products from your favorite publishers and manufacturers in one convenient place. And don't worry—PREVIEWS is organized by publisher and product type (and color-coded to boot!), to make it easy to find and flip to the section or items you're looking for. Each item listing has the information you need, such as format, size, page count, price, release date, stock or item code, and descriptive text, and nearly every listing is accompanied by artwork or images.

The most important aspect of PREVIEWS to remember is that items solicited in the catalog are anticipated to ship 2-3 months later (or more). For example, if you found a comic you wanted in the May issue of PREVIEWS, you can expect to see it turn up in your local comic shop in July. The catalog can be a great resource for figuring out where your favorite comic series is going, or for discovering new ones that you'll want to add to your library—not to mention all the other awesome products!

HOW DO I ORDER FROM PREVIEWS?

When you've picked out all of the items you want, you can fill out the Short Order Form included in your copy of PREVIEWS and submit it to your local comic shop. You can also ask your friendly neighborhood retailer about obtaining a Customer Order Form, a booklet that contains a complete listing of all the items made available for that month. These forms make pre-ordering your comics and products a breeze and can help your local comic shop decide what to stock in the store for other customers, too! Be sure to also ask your retailer about their pullbox or subscription service. Once you've submitted your order, you can sit back and relax, or try to contain your excitement until your comics and merchandise arrive!

Where The Magic Of Collectibles Comes Alive!

Geppi's Entertainment Museum at Awesome Con

Geppi's Entertainment Museum took a piece of the pop culture museum to Awesome Con with a wonderful exhibit of collectibles. Convention attendees were mesmerized seeing the original Plane Crazy storyboards and first appearance comics like Amazing Fantasy #15.

"The collection we displayed was to be a taster tour, if you will, of Steve (Geppi)'s entire collection. We were thanked by everyone for bringing the exhibit to DC and many guests returned to tour multiple times, in most cases bringing back friends to see it – just as happens with our actual museum location," GEM President Melissa Bowersox said.

Prince's Guitar Nets Over $137K at Heritage

Heritage Auctions sold Prince's personally owned and played Yellow Cloud electric guitar sold for $137,500. The unique piece was a legendary instrument for Prince and was sold as part of Heritage's Entertainment & Music Memorabilia Auction.

The solid body guitar was made for Prince in a unique shape and style. He used it during many concerts in the late 1980s to mid-1990s. Sadly, Prince died recently on April 21, 2016 at his Paisley Park home in Minnesota.

"I hope the new owner appreciates it as much as I did," said Richard Lecce, the former owner of the guitar.

Sonic the Hedgehog at 25

Sonic the Hedgehog sped onto the scene 25 years ago, breathing fresh life into video games. The original Sonic debuted on Sega Genesis on June 23, 1991 and helped to establish Sega as a contender in the console market.

The game was developed to create a mascot for Sega. Sega technically already had a mascot, Alex Kidd; however, he was considered too similar to Nintendo's Mario. It created a rivalry between Sega and Nintendo and helped sell the Genesis. Sonic has spawned a number of sequels, becoming one of the bestselling video game series of all time, with over 150 million copies.

WHAT'S COOL IN THIS MONTH'S CATALOG!

August 2016 | Edited By: Allyn Gibson | editor@PREVIEWSworld.com

A NEW GENERATION OF HEROES ARISE IN MARVEL COMICS' CHAMPIONS

Just as this year's presidential election revealed generational fault lines in America's polity, so too did Marvel's second Civil War open fissures between the old guard and the new millennial generation of heroes. This autumn, a group of young heroes leave the Avengers behind and strike out on their own in Mark Waid and Humberto Ramos' new Marvel Comics series, Champions!

To the young heroes, the established heroes like Iron Man, Captain Marvel, Spider-Man, and Captain America were many things — idols, mentors, role models, parental figures. Civil War II changed that. The adults in the room didn't have their best interests at heart, they didn't take their concerns into consideration, they didn't see the bigger picture. Forced to take sides when the adults squabbled, forced to choose, the young heroes did what any teenager would do when their loyalties were torn as their super-heroic parents and mentors essentially divorced — they looked out for themselves and played by their own rules. Ms. Marvel, Nova, and Spider-Man, formerly All-New All-Different Avengers, form their own team, the Champions, and, recruiting the teenaged Cyclops, Viv Vision, and the Totally Awesome Hulk to join them. Driven by the idealism of youth, the all-new Champions are determined to make the world a better place!

Long-time collaborators Mark Waid and Humberto Ramos reteam on Champions. No strangers to youthful heroes and their adventures, Waid and Ramos bring action, drama, hijinks, and excitement to this key Marvel Now! title. Waid and Ramos' Champions will be the heroes for a new generation and a new era of Marvel Comics. Look for the over-sized first issue this October!

SERENITY SOARS AGAIN IN DARK HORSE COMICS' NEW MINI-SERIES

Living an outlaw life smuggling contraband between the settled worlds of The 'Verse isn't always lucrative for Mal Reynolds and his crew. When jobs dry up, they find a respite when they're hired to locate a missing acquaintance, and their quest to find Bea will lead them into uncharted territory and unparalleled adventure!

Written by acclaimed writer Chris Roberson and with art by Buffy the Vampire Slayer's Georges Jeanty, Dark Horse Comics' Serenity: No Power in The 'Verse is the adventure Whedon's fans have been waiting for!

COMBAT AWAITS AFTER DEATH IN IMAGE COMICS' REBORN

What happens to the soul after death? Theologians and philosophers have attempted to answer the question since human history was first recorded seven thousand years ago, and despite myriad theories and philosophies, no one is any closer today to answering the question than they were in prehistoric times. The truth is, no one knows what lies beyond life.

This October in their new series, Reborn, Mark Millar (Kick-Ass) and Greg Capullo (Batman) team up for a unique take on what awaits us all after death. Instead of a peaceful heaven, a tolerable purgatory, or a hell of torments, Millar and Capullo posit an afterlife of combat, where only the strongest souls survive. Part sword-and-sorcery, part post-apocalyptic tale of survival, Reborn will take readers on a journey into the afterlife, a place where every decision in life had prepared you — or not — for the final conflict.

Mark Millar and Greg Capullo team for this innovative look at the afterlife!

Picking up from the film's conclusion, IDW Publishing's Star Trek: Boldly Go takes Kirk, Spock, and their intrepid crew on bold new adventures!

Mike Johnson, the writer of the just-concluded ongoing Star Trek series and the best-selling Star Trek/Green Lantern: The Spectrum War, is teamed with artist Tony Shasteen for a new era of adventures in the movie universe. The Federation is facing new threats, and now Starfleet's most accomplished crew is tasked with facing the challenge!

Continuing the story of Star Trek Beyond, a new era of Star Trek adventures begins!

Newly widowed, Cave tries to piece his life back together when a knock on the door of his secret underground lab pulls him back into a past that he and Eileen thought they had left buried deep within the Earth.

HAUNTED HORROR #24

writer/artist Various

cover L.B. Cole

The infamous Fangoria Magazine terrifyingly screams, "While comprehensive collections of significant series such as Tales from the Crypt and Creepy/Eerie are certainly essential, this collection is snatching up old, forgotten gems and reprinting them for our sticky, little hands. We get to experience writers and artists across the board working on these spooky tales, catching quick looks at bygone creators who might have completely disappeared if it wasn't for this. Haunted Horror nails the feel of these old pulp comics, from the grim covers to the restored interiors and with the thickly written dialogue, guaranteeing the reader a good thirty minutes of shivering terror. Grimy, ghoulish, and sinfully devilish, Haunted Horror is effectively bringing old horror to a new generation."

CANNIBAL #1
BY BRIAN BUCCELLATO, JENNIFER YOUNG & MATIAS BERGARA

MOONSHINE #1

Set during Prohibition, and deep in the backwoods of Appalachia, MOONSHINE #1 tells the story of Lou Pirlo, a city-slick "torpedo" sent from New York City to negotiate a deal with the best moonshiner in West Virginia, one Hiram Holt. What Lou doesn't figure on is that Holt is just as cunning and ruthless as any NYC crime boss. Because not only will Holt do anything to protect his illicit booze operation, he'll stop at nothing to protect a much darker family secret...a bloody, supernatural secret that must never see the light of day... or better still, the light of the full moon.

MOONSHINE #1 marks the first time AZZARELLO and RISSO have worked together for Image Comics and reunites the Eisner Award winning creative team that defined modern crime comics with 100 Bullets... and now puts a horror-twist on a classic gangster tale. SI LEWEN'S PARADE: AN ARTIST'S ODYSSEY GN

(W) Si Lewen, Art Spiegelman
(A/CA) Si Lewen

A hauntingly original wordless illustrated novel by forgotten master Si Lewen, with an introduction by Pulitzer Prize-winning author Art Spiegelman. Si Lewen's Parade is a timeless story, first published in 1957, told in a language that knows no country, a wordless epic that, despite its muteness, is more powerful than the written or the spoken word. Reproduced in a unique two-sided accordion-fold format with an extensive overview of the artist's career on the verso, The Parade is a celebration of art and the story of recurring war as Si Lewen experienced it over the past 90 years, watching the joyful parades that marked the end of World War I lead into the death marches of World War II and the Korean War. As The Parade unfolds, the reader is taken on an unforgettable journey of sequential images. Available in a standard edition, The Parade is also available in a Limited Edition of 150 copies with an original art print by Art Spiegelman, signed by Lewen and Spiegelman. STAFF PICK

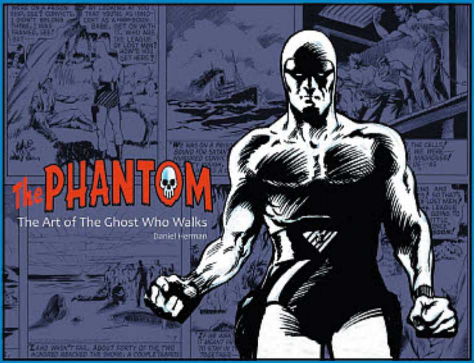
THE PHANTOM: THE ART OF THE GHOST WHO WALKS

Recommended by Steven Leaf



The Phantom was probably the first costumed hero I read or was read to by my dad. The comic strips had a unique fascination and the daily exploits made sure I learned to read for myself. There was a consistency to the art, and Sy Barry and Bill Lignante were The Phantom artists to me. It probably wasn't long after I showed my grandfather I could read that I was allowed to go to his newsstand and pick out a comic book. While there wasn't a Phantom comic to be found, I settled for Batman who, to this day, when done right, is my favorite superhero.

Reading comics and going to comic cons, lead me to fanzines that expanded my interest in Batman and The Phantom. I found old comics and got to know artists like Ray Moore and Wilson McCoy drawing The Phantom. Now, years later, artists like Graham Nolan and Don Newton showed they could handle both those characters equally as well.

Now a spry 80 years old, The Phantom holds his age quite well thanks to the writers and, most importantly to me, the artists behind The Ghost Who Walks and who never seems to age.

In The Phantom: The Art of the Ghost Who Walks Hermes Press has produced a book that represents all the major artists who have worked on The Phantom. This book makes available original art seldom seen outside personal collections and represents the rich 80 year history of The Ghost Who Walks. Within the pages we get to see art by Ray Moore and Wilson McCoy as well as the painted Gold Key cover art by George Wilson. Comic book artists are well represented with art by Lignante, Jim Aparo, Pat Boyette, and Don Newton, with Aparo and Newton featured in complete stories shot from the original artwork. We will also see art from the illustrators who worked on The Phantom overseas in Italy, Australia, and Scandinavia as well as those who worked on the character at DC, Marvel, Moonstone, and Dynamite

Hermes Press has a history of doing The Phantom right and this will be a great addition to their classic strip and comic book reprints. This is a book a true fan of the Phantom must have and is a great present for the 80th anniversary of The Ghost Who Walks.

From GARTH ENNIS, the creator of the hit AMC television show PREACHER! Collecting the critically-acclaimed six-issue limited series in a beautiful hardcover presentation.

DREAMING EAGLES tells the story of the first African-American fighter pilots to join the United States Army Air Force in WWII, and whose humble beginnings in Tuskegee, Alabama propelled them into the deadly skies above Adolf Hitler's Third Reich. Not only were they instrumental against the Nazi war machine, but also braved an equally great challenge: overcoming everyday bigotry amongst their fellow American soldiers as well as civilians at home. High in the heavens, they fought a battle that would change their country for all time.

"Packed with history and heart, DREAMING EAGLES is a strong character driven piece from writer and creator Garth Ennis."

When the lull of night falls over a sleeping midwestern town, an ancient unimaginable horror creeps violently through the night. That's when the children come out to play. Children with eyes of solid back, devoid of emotion and remorse, and only asking for one thing...to come inside. But there are some who will not go quietly into the night. There are some who will fight back to save not only their own souls, but their children's. This is their story. Collecting the first five issues of the sleeper hit series from Eisner Award winner Joe Pruett and artist Szymon Kudranski.

Introducing Scottie Watson – Stargate Atlantis: Gateways Artist

I'm a huge Stargate Atlantis fan, I'm also a fan of Greg LaRocque, Mark Haynes, and J.C. Vaughn, so when I heard they were working on a new SGA comic I was super excited. Never in my wildest dreams did I ever imagine I'd not only be taking over the reins of a legendary artist but on a series based on one of my all-time favorite TV shows written by two writers whose work I love and respect. When American Mythology approached me about working on the series, part of me was terrified, while part of me was as excited as a kid in a candy store. Greg leaves big shoes to fill because he's amazing and SGA fans are extremely passionate. It was a challenge I was ready to take on because I'm one of those passionate fans and I feel my passion for SGA comes through in each and every panel. Thanks, Greg, I hope to carry the SGA banner with as much love and care as you gave it.

SUCH A LOVELY LITTLE WAR: SAIGON 1961-63 GN

(W) Marcelino Truong, David Homel
(A/CA) Marcelino Truong
This graphic memoir tells the story of the early years of the Vietnam war as seen through the eyes of a young boy named Marco, the son of a Vietnamese diplomat and his French wife. The boy's father works for the South Vietnam embassy in the United States, then the family is called back to Saigon in 1961, where the father becomes Prime Minister Ngo Dinh Diem's personal interpreter; as the growing conflict between North and South intensifies, so does turmoil within Marco's family, as his mother struggles to grapple with bipolar disorder. Visually powerful and emotionally potent, Such a Lovely Little War is both a large-scale and intimate study of the Vietnam war as seen through the eyes of the Vietnamese: a turbulent national history interwined with an equally traumatic familial one. About: TV and Screenwriter Christos Gage returns to the grueling world of Garth Ennis' Crossed with a vengeance. Fans favorite Alpha-Crossed Smokey has returned and he's on the mission he began back in the legendary "Quisling" story arc. Driven by a powerful controlled cruelty, Smokey discovers a survivalist bunker and forces a desperate man to help him do the unthinkable... create a new Crossed civilization and city called "Smokeyville." But how long can even a creature like Smokey hold the murderous Crossed to his will before they turn upon each other? It's the ultimate sociological experiment amidst the wreckage of civilization. There is no equal to the terror and depravity within the pages of Crossed. It is simply the most terrifying uncensored horror comic book being published. This volume collects issues #93-100 of the ongoing Crossed: Badlands series.

FLYING COUCH: A GRAPHIC MEMOIR GN
(W/A/CA) Amy Kurzweil
Flying Couch, Amy Kurzweil's debut, tells the stories of three unforgettable women. Amy weaves her own coming-of-age as a young Jewish artist into the narrative of her mother, a psychologist, and Bubbe, her grandmother, a World War II survivor who escaped from the Warsaw Ghetto by disguising herself as a gentile. Captivated by Bubbe's story, Amy turns to her sketchbooks, teaching herself to draw as a way to cope with what she discovers. Entwining the voices and histories of these three wise, hilarious, and very different women, Amy creates a portrait not only of what it means to be part of a family, but also of how each generation bears the imprint of the past. THE RETURN OF BIG CITY COMICS STUDIO

"Publishing with Purpose" is more than our motto. Every good book needs to balance solid artwork with a clear and interesting story. Most importantly, it has to ship on time. Big City Comics Studio will not solicit a book unless the book is finished and in the can. For example, the first five issues of our new monthly book Tesla and Hyde: Scary Fails, was completed before the ad you are reading was even created.

We understand it is not enough to market our books to local comic book stores by showing off a flashy cover with a small blurb. We preview every book with reviewers and potential readers up to a year before our books are even solicited.

Big City will be offering two books a month starting with our new monthly book, Tesla and Hyde: Scary Fails and our 100 page graphic novel, Gabriel Tempest. We continue our tradition of offering our 100 page, full color, original graphic novels for only $9.99. This helps lower the risk retailers have to take and makes our books more affordable to our readers. Welcome back to the City!

Nolan Ska, an engineer, manages to travel back in time, with the intention of changing history by encouraging Wilson first career: novelist. But the man who will eventually become a seemingly immortal despot turns out to be a poor writer, and it will be up to Nolan to use his own memories to be his ghost writer. (STL018959) (C: 0-1-1)

STAR TREK: BOLDLY GO #1

Recommended by Matthew Demory

Star Trek has always been part of my life. My father experienced the original show when he was younger and passed that experience on to me. Where he watched the original series I grew up with Star Trek: The Next Generation. I still vividly remember sitting on the couch with my dad, getting ready to watch the season 5 premier "Redemption II" in glorious standard definition.

Today Star Trek: The Next Generation is considered by many to be an iconic series. When it was first announced there were a lot of concerns about whether that series would ever get off the ground. How could you do a sequel to a popular TV series that had aired its last new episode decades past and with a whole new cast?

I think it was the success of Next Generation that really proved to a lot of people that the Star Trek brand not only still had legs but it could appeal to generations that were born after the original series was already in re-runs. Now with the rebooted movies, we are seeing things come full circle. New eyes are seeing these characters for the first time and now they have a massive library of movies, TV, and comics for the first time.

Star Trek: Boldy Go #1 from writer Mike Johnson (Star Trek/Green Lantern: The Spectrum War, JAN160395) and artist Tony Shasteen (Batman: Arkham Unhinged, NOV140307) will be required reading for new fans of the movies. Picking up right after the events of Star Trek Beyond. The adventure always continues. There are always new worlds to discover, new aliens to meet, and a brighter future for all of us in Gene Roddenberry's universe.

KISS is back! Back to the FUTURE in this dark sci-fi adventure. In a world without sun and a world without heroes, four young friends embark on a dangerous mission - to uncover the truth about the mysterious Council of Elders and their underground home, the city of Blackwell. But first they need some help from the past…

"What is the power of KISS? I was having breakfast recently with the fabulous writer Kelly Sue DeConnick. When she found out I was writing this series, it was like firecrackers had been set off in the restaurant, she was so excited. So I'm doing this not just for the hardcore fans (like Kelly Sue) but also the new ones, like her children. It's a huge challenge for me. KISS is iconic. Legendary. It's global and cross-generational. So much has been done before with KISS in comics, a LOT of fun and crazy stuff. So for this series, I thought, why not go more serious? For research, I hunkered down and listened to the 1981 album Music from The Elder several times. Like the movie Blade Runner which came out around the same time, people didn't know what to make of it. If this album came out now, I think it would be entirely different reception. So this storyline is more focused on mythology, heroism, and legend, and inspired by themes, lyrics, and song titles from that album." – Amy Chu

"Cruise on a trip through my memories of drawing lowriders and tees, of creating Homies for the last thirty-five years. A pictorial narrative of one artist following his dreams..."

Created by David Gonzales, the Homies first appeared as an underground comic strip that debuted in Lowrider Magazine in 1978, a reflection of his friends and lifestyle. At first a group of tightly knit Chicano buddies from East Los Angeles, the Homies expanded their crew to over 300 characters from all different cultures, genres, and even species. In an inner-city world plagued by poverty and oppression, they formed a strong, binding cultural support system that enabled them to overcome negativity and turn to laughter and good times as an antidote for reality.

Homies erupted as a mainstream sensation in 1994 when trend-savvy retailer Hot Topic offered Homies shirts for sale, rapidly becoming popular with the youth market. Following on the heels of a successful T-shirt run, Homies was licensed for figurines in the vending machine toy industry, where all sales records were broken, with over 150 million figurines sold worldwide. The licensing program soon spread to products such as action figures, remote-control and die-cast cars, notebooks, posters, plush, Halloween masks, video games, music, and more, carried by specialty and mass retailers everywhere.

History of the Homies is a triumphant celebration of the turbulent times, remarkable artistry, and youthful street culture of a pop culture phenomenon, including hundreds of pictures and a complete guide to Homies figurines.

A corrupt world where selfish politicians call all the shots is not unlike ours, and sometimes a real hero is just what people need to remind ourselves of the good in all of us. After all, heroes are more than just strong warriors with lasers and giant robots at their call...they are also brave, selfless, and compassionate!

Heroes Are Extinct! parodies the superficial image of the hero so prevalent in anime and our own culture. Forget spaceships, costumes, and swordfights...the most awesome part of the hero is the part we often overlook!

GEORGIE: THE STORY OF A MAN, HIS DOG, AND A PIN HC

(W/A/CA) R. O. Blechman

The joyful arrival of a longed-for baby is followed by overwhelming losses but a loyal dog makes happiness possible again. This moving and profound graphic novel by R. O. Blechman treats its solemn subject with humor, simplicity, and warm humanity. Maurice Sendak characterized the tale as "fierce, passionate little pictures that pack a punch only Blechman seems capable of delivering," and Jules Feiffer observed that "Long-time fans are well aware of Blechman's elegant cartoon-poetry, but in Georgie, his quiet, measured pace moves the reader onto darker terrain, presented in a sweet and tragic man-and-dog story that calls for a second reading, and perhaps, more." Millions of years in the future, a new world emerges, a world made of living flesh, surrounded by acidic seas. Rotten at the edges, awash in gangrene swamps, and bristling with mountains of bone, the planet's simmering core houses the stark city of Bedlam, where an all-male race suppresses every manifestation of femininity. In this magnificently illustrated dreamscape of brutality and eroticism, a mysterious female presence called Rumour arises to challenge super-commando Brother Bones in a deadly war between the sexes. World Without End offers a compelling blend of science-fiction allegory and fantasy adventure. Author Jamie Delano's unique vision of a strange, immersive world is perfectly complemented by John Higgins's stunning illustrations. (STL018585) (C: 0-1-0)

KITARO MEETS NURARIHYON GN

(W/A/CA) Shigeru Mizuki

Kitaro Meets Nurarihyon is the second volume in the adventures of Shigeru Mizuki's bizarre yokai boy Kitaro and his gaggle of otherworldly friends. These seven stories date from the golden age of Gegege no Kitaro, when Mizuki had perfected the balance of folklore, comedy, and horror that made Kitaro one of Japan's most beloved characters. In addition to more than 150 pages of Mizuki's all-ages monster fun, Kitaro Meets Nurarihyon includes bonus materials: "Yokai Files" that introduce Japan's folklore monsters and a "History of Kitaro" essay by translator Zack Davisson. ROLLING BLACKOUTS: DISPATCHES FROM TURKEY, SYRIA, AND IRAQ HC

(W/A/CA) Sarah Glidden

Cartoonist Sarah Glidden accompanies her two friends — reporters and founders of a journalism non-profit — as they research potential stories on the effects of the Iraq War on the Middle East and, specifically, the war's refugees. Joining the trio is a childhood friend and former Marine whose past service in Iraq adds an unexpected and sometimes unwelcome viewpoint, both to the people they come across and perhaps even themselves. Painted in her trademark soft, muted watercolors and written with a self-effacing humor, Rolling Blackouts cements Glidden's place as one of today's most original nonfiction voices. BEAUTIFUL DARKNESS HC

(W) Fabien Vehlmann (A/CA) Kerascoet

A dark fairy tale about surviving the human experience, Beautiful Darkness is a harrowing look at the human psyche and the darkness that hides behind the routine politeness and meaningless kindness of civilized society. The sweet faces and bright leaves of Kerascoët's joyful watercolors only serve to highlight the evil that dwells beneath, as characters allow their pettiness, greed, and jealousy to take over. It a bleak allegory on the human condition; Kerascoët's and Fabien Vehlmann's work is a searing condemnation of our vast capacity for evil writ tiny. (STK622626)

BIG QUESTIONS TP

(W/A/CA) Anders Nilsen

A haunting postmodern fable, Big Questions details the metaphysical quandaries of the occupants of an endless plain, existing somewhere between a dream and a Russian steppe. A downed plane is thought to be a bird and the unexploded bomb that came from it is mistaken for a giant egg by the group of birds whose lives the story follows. Nilsen seamlessly moves from humor to heartbreak. Rather than lending its world meaning, Nilsen's parable lets the questions wander where they will. Available in both softcover and hardcover edition, the new hardcover printing is signed and numbered by the author. (STK443211)

THE BIRTH OF KITARO GN

(W/A/CA) Shigeru Mizuki

The Birth of Kitaro collects seven of Shigeru Mizuki's early and beloved Kitaro stories, making them available for the first time in English, in a kid-friendly format and price point. With more than 150 pages of spooky and often funny all-ages comics about the titular yokai boy, The Birth of Kitaro is the perfect introduction to Mizuki's most popular series, which has won the hearts of Japanese children and adults for more than half a century! DOGS & WATER: THE DEFINITIVE EDITION HC

(W/A/CA) Anders Nilsen

A young man wandering a nameless path has only a stuffed bear as a companion, which inertly endures his desperation, anger, and musings along the way. The landscape is cold and bleak with few landmarks, and offers only precarious encounters with animals and armed men. He finds acceptance with a pack of dogs, though their nature is wild and their potential threat is as unsettling as the sudden presence of a massive pipeline on the horizon. In a dreamlike state, the endless land becomes a vast body of water where his boat is destroyed and his body floats in a subconscious space. All is uncertain and all can be lost, but he continues on regardless. (STK333826)

POETRY IS USELESS HC

(W/A/CA) Anders Nilsen

In Poetry is Useless, Anders Nilsen redefines the sketchbook format, intermingling elegant, densely detailed renderings of mythical animals, short comics drawn in ink, meditations on religion, and abstract shapes and patterns. Stick people debate the dubious merits of economics. Immaculately stippled circles become looser and looser, as craters appear on their surface. A trip to Colombia for a comics festival is recounted in carefully drawn city streets and sketches made in cafes. This expansive sketchbook-as-graphic-novel is exquisitely packaged with appendices and a foreword from Nilsen himself. (STK676392)

RAGE OF POSEIDON HC

(W/A/CA) Anders Nilsen

Imagine you are Poseidon at the dawn of the twenty-first century. The oceans are dying and sailors have long since stopped paying tribute. They just don't need you anymore. What do you do? Perhaps, seeking answers, you go exploring. Maybe you end up in Wisconsin and discover the pleasures of the iced latte. And then everything goes wrong. Using beautifully hewn silhouettes and an accordion-style layout that unfolds to more than forty feet in length, Anders Nilsen updates Greek myth and Christian allegory with insightful and devastating wit. REGGIE 12 HC

(W/A/CA) Brian Ralph

What if Osamu Tezuka's beloved hero Astro Boy was a young robot with endless enthusiasm who lived with a bumbling sad-sack robot friend, a self-centered wise-cracking cat, and a well-meaning but forgetful inventor? Why, then he'd be Reggie-12! Reggie-12 is classic Japanese adventure manga cartooning reworked in Brian Ralph's trademark style and told with the episodic wit and structure of the contemporary American sitcom. Laughs explode from the page (and the reader's belly) as mishap follows caper follows disaster. Come along for a wild ride with Reggie-12, Casper, and Professor Tinkerton as they eat pizza, play video games, and get dissed by bad guys. (STK618462) (C: 0-0-1)

It is, perhaps, the perfect video game. Simple yet addictive, Tetris delivers an irresistible, unending puzzle that has players hooked. Once Tetris emerged from behind the Iron Curtain, it was an instant hit. New York Times-bestselling author Box Brown untangles this complex history and delves deep into the role games play in art, culture, and commerce. ANDRE THE GIANT: LIFE AND LEGEND GN
(W/A/CA) Box Brown
Andre Roussimoff is known as both the lovable giant in The Princess Bride and a heroic pro-wrestling figure. He was a normal guy who'd been dealt an extraordinary hand in life. At his peak, he weighed 500 pounds and stood nearly seven and a half feet tall. Box Brown brings his great talents as a cartoonist and biographer to this phenomenal new graphic novel. Drawing from historical records about Andre's life as well as a wealth of anecdotes from his colleagues in the wrestling world, including Hulk Hogan, and his film co-stars, Brown has created the first substantive biography of one of the twentieth century's most recognizable figures. THE SCULPTOR HC
(W/A/CA) Scott McCloud
David Smith is giving his life for his art — literally. Thanks to a deal with Death, the young sculptor gets his childhood wish: to sculpt anything he can imagine with his bare hands. But now that he only has 200 days to live, deciding what to create is harder than he thought, and discovering the love of his life at the eleventh hour isn't making it any easier. This is a story of desire taken to the edge of reason and beyond; of the frantic, clumsy dance steps of young love; and a gorgeous portrait of the world's greatest city. It's also about the small, warm, human moment of everyday life. (STK660937)

And as the power of this secret society grows, the entire human race faces the imminent danger of tyranny and oppression at their hand. The battle to control the drug that will create a new world order begins, and the only hope for humanity are the test subjects from Heroes Haven, the very dregs of society first experimented upon. SHIRLEY JACKSON'S THE LOTTERY GN

(W) Shirley Jackson, Miles Hyman
(A/CA) Miles Hyman

Shirley Jackson's "The Lottery" continues to thrill and unsettle readers nearly seven decades after it was first published. By turns puzzling and harrowing, it raises troubling questions about conformity, tradition, and the specter of ritualized violence that haunts even the most bucolic, peaceful village. This graphic adaptation, published in time for Jackson's centennial, allows readers to experience "The Lottery" as never before, or discover it anew. The visual artist — and Jackson's grandson — Miles Hyman has crafted an eerie vision of the hamlet where the tale unfolds, its inhabitants, and the unforgettable ritual they set into motion. His four-color, meticulously detailed panels create a noirish atmosphere that adds a new dimension of dread to the original tale. Available in Softcover and Hardcover editions. New Brunswick, New Jersey, Thursday, September 14, 1922. Reverend Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills take a stroll in the town's park in the evening. Shots are heard. 2 days later, their bodies are found laying on the ground very neatly next to each other with her hand on his thigh, love letters strewn around them, the scarf on her neck covering up the deep bloody slit in it. Reverend Hall, himself married, was in an open secret of an affair with Mrs. Mills, a married woman of his choir. Was it suicide? A jealous rival? (STK464894)

A TREASURY 20TH CENTURY MURDER VOLUME 5: THE MURDER OF STANFORD WHITE HC
(W/A/CA) Rick Geary
Stanford White is one of New York's most famous architects; his influence on New York's look at the turn of the century was pervasive. As he became popular and in demand, he also became quite self-indulgent. He had a taste for budding young showgirls on Broadway, even setting up a private apartment to entertain them in. When he meets Evelyn Nesbit, an exquisite young nymph, cover girl, showgirl, inspiration for Charles Dana Gibson's "The Eternal Question," he knows he's on to something special. However, Evelyn eventually marries a young Pittsburgh decadent heir, setting up the most scandalous murder of the time. (STK620351)

ANGEL CITY #1

JANET HARVEY (W) MEGAN LEVENS (A/CA)

NICK FILARDI (C)

32 Pages, $3.99, RELEASE DATE: 10/05/16

Introducing Angel City, a hard-boiled 1930s noir starring Dolores Dare, previous Hollywood hopeful and current enforcer for the Volante mob. When her best friend turns up dead in a dumpster behind the Chinese Theater, Dolores starts her own investigation of the "April Fool's Killer." As she gets closer to the truth, the studios, the corrupt homicide division, and even her own gangland contacts work to cover up the scandal. Has she bitten off more than she can chew?

"Angel City flips the script on the classic detective story, centering around a heroine fed up with the way Hollywood treats everyone but the men in charge. I love actress-turned-muscle Dolores Dare, and I bet you will, too."

KATE LETH (PATSY WALKER, AKA HELLCAT!, FRESH ROMANCE)

"Angel City is absolutely everything I love about comics—a new angle on a traditional noir, energetic, gorgeous, and inspired! Hard-boiled wit and delightful execution! I want more of all of it—Harvey's writing and Levens' art and Filardi's colors and right down to Crank!'s evocative lettering! Gimme one NOW!"

PUSSYCAT HC

(W/A/CA) Peyo

From comics master Peyo (The Smurfs) comes Pussycat, a lovable, mischievous tuxedo cat who spends his time chasing after milk and snacks and framing other members of his family for his shenanigans. This cat isn't exactly the noble hunting type; he'd rather play a game of kickball with the resident mouse than chase after him. Warning, our hero Poussy is a real (somwhat mischievious) cat. He does not speak (he just meows) and his main passions in life are eating, hunting mice, avoiding dogs and meowing at night. And you'll be surprised at the lengths he goes to in order to indulge his passions! Originally published in Spirou magazine in France, this is a delightful collection of comics that can be enjoyed by all-ages. (STK659903) (C: 0-0-1)

BRIEF HISTORIES OF EVERYDAY OBJECTS GN

(W/A/CA) Andy Warner

In the tradition of A Cartoon History of the Universe and, most recent, Randall Munroe's What If? comes Brief Histories of Everyday Objects, an intrepid, graphic tour through the unusual stories behind the creation of some of the overlooked items that surround us in our daily lives. Chapters introduce readers to a cast of inventors whose ideas led to the ballpoint pen riots, cowboy wars, and really bad Victorian practical jokes. Structured around the different locations in our home and daily life — the kitchen, the bathroom, the office, and the grocery store — Andy Warner traces the often surprising histories behind the items we often take for granted. SUPER MARIO ADVENTURES GN

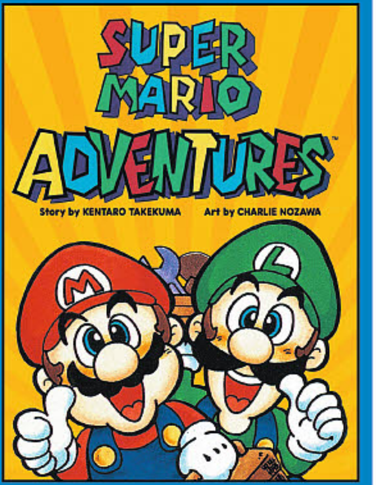
Recommended by Sarah Martinez



Hey paisanos! You can finally give your old Nintendo Power magazines a rest, because VIZ has collected Super Mario Adventures, originally published in those issues, into a much friendlier format! Great care has gone into preserving Kentaro Takekuma's story and Tamakichi Sakura's original art—the books will be printed at magazine trim size and will match the previously released Legend of Zelda: Link to the Past GN (MAR151495) already on shelves!

In addition to being a beloved franchise with major nostalgic ties to 1980's video gaming culture and childhoods all the way up to the present, this particular collection is a real slice of history! Princess Peach was still Princess Toadstool to the US markets back when this series was originally commissioned for and released in Nintendo Power in the early 90s. Japanese mangaka hadn't really carved a niche for themselves in the North American comic market, so this widely-distributed magazine was a "first exposure" to manga visual tropes for a large portion of the 80's and 90's generation of comic readers. Timed to sustain excitement in the new Super Nintendo System, this particular comic did the heavy lifting for fleshing out the world outside the game for Super Mario World (the first one with Yoshi). This was also a major spotlight on characters outside of Mario himself! Princess Toadstool, Luigi, King Koopa, and the Koopa Kids got an abundant amount of character development that couldn't be given in the classic side-scrollers. These characterizations have persisted throughout the license since. It's so great to see it all in print again—letting these characters shine for the next generation of readers!

Blast from the Past: Plucky plumbers & proud Princess K-O the kidnapping Koopa!

If you are looking for beauty than this tale will never do. It is not a beautiful story. It is a story of a world that existed long ago in a time before time. It begins many eons before man had ever tasted breath, in a world where the Titans roared across the seven seas and the Earth was nothing more than a gaping void of fire and wind. I could keep my story, I suppose, keep it in the silence of this grave where it belongs, but if I did that it would be soon be forgotten for everyone is gone. Deep in the forest-covered mountains is an all-girls school, attended by children from only the richest and most prestigious of families. Here, the girls are raised to be perfect young ladies, cut off from the real world to preserve their innocence and ensure that they're free from all distractions. This policy of isolation is a double-edged sword, however, for after graduation, students of the academy often struggle to adapt to a world that's totally different from their cloistered school life. STAR TREK: BOLDLY GO #1

Recommended by Matthew Demory

Star Trek has always been part of my life. My father experienced the original show when he was younger and passed that experience on to me. Where he watched the original series I grew up with Star Trek: The Next Generation. I still vividly remember sitting on the couch with my dad, getting ready to watch the season 5 premier "Redemption II" in glorious standard definition.

Today Star Trek: The Next Generation is considered by many to be an iconic series. When it was first announced there were a lot of concerns about whether that series would ever get off the ground. How could you do a sequel to a popular TV series that had aired its last new episode decades past and with a whole new cast?

I think it was the success of Next Generation that really proved to a lot of people that the Star Trek brand not only still had legs but it could appeal to generations that were born after the original series was already in re-runs. Now with the rebooted movies, we are seeing things come full circle. New eyes are seeing these characters for the first time and now they have a massive library of movies, TV, and comics for the first time.

Star Trek: Boldy Go #1 from writer Mike Johnson (Star Trek/Green Lantern: The Spectrum War, JAN160395) and artist Tony Shasteen (Batman: Arkham Unhinged, NOV140307) will be required reading for new fans of the movies. Picking up right after the events of Star Trek Beyond. The adventure always continues. There are always new worlds to discover, new aliens to meet, and a brighter future for all of us in Gene Roddenberry's universe.

TITAN

HARD CASE CRIME

FEATURED ITEM

Hard Case Crime is the leading light in hardboiled crime novels, publishing the giants of the genre; Stephen King, Michael Chrichton, Ken Bruen and Max Allen Collins, whose best-selling Quarry series is destined for TV in the highly-anticipated adaptation for Cinemax.

This October, Titan Comics is proud to present the publication of a daring all-new Hard Case Crime comics line! The first shots fired will be punky neo-noir Peepland from celebrated crime authors Christa Faust & Gary Phillips, and Prohibition epic Triggerman by legendary director of The Warriors, Walter Hill!

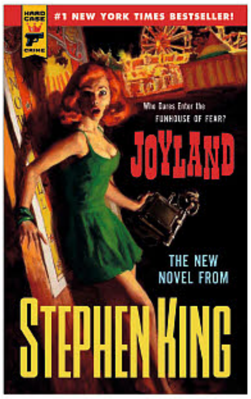
Who better to introduce this explosive new initiative than the guy you want in your corner when the rain is pouring down and all the chips are stacked against you: New York native, award-winning writer, editor, television producer, and founder of Hard Case Crime, Charles Ardai! Take it away, Charles!

CHARLES ARDAI
EDITOR & FOUNDER, HARD CASE CRIME

What is Hard Case Crime?
Hard Case Crime is a line of tough, sexy, ingenious crime novels written by some of the finest plot-spinners ever to pick up a pen or pound an Underwood. They grab you by the lapels on page one and drag you bodily through the story until they leave you breathless on the last page. And since 2004 we've done this with nothing but words on the page. Just wait till we add pictures.

You've certainly attracted some of the greatest writers in the world. Who have you worked with and what do you think draws them to you?
Absolutely: Stephen King, Michael Crichton, Mickey Spillane, Ed McBain, Donald E. Westlake, Harlan Ellison...it's a Who's Who of the best of the best. They work with us because they love what we do. They love the stories we tell and they love how we tell them, with gorgeous painted covers and the old-fashioned look and feel. They want to see their words between our covers. And we're happy to oblige.



The new Hard Case Crime comics line kicks off with Peepland and Triggerman. Tell us about them and the creators behind them!
PEEPLAND is about sex, murder and cover-ups in 1980s Times Square – back when it was still a porn bazaar, before Disney cleaned the place up. I hung out in Times Square in those days, and the script by Christa Faust and Gary Phillips brings it to life so vividly you can almost smell the stink of it. TRIGGERMAN is set in a different time and place – it's a Prohibition-era story about a gunman tracking down some robbers who double crossed the Mob and took his girlfriend from him for good measure – but it comes from legendary director Walter Hill (THE WARRIORS, 48 HRS.) and, like PEEPLAND, it's one mean, brutal piece of crime fiction.

What makes them the perfect people to tell these stories?
No one writes a script like Walter Hill. For those of us who've been waiting fifteen years for a new Walter Hill crime movie, TRIGGERMAN scratches a mighty big itch. And Christa? She used to be a Times Square peepshow girl back in those days -- so she really knows what she's writing about, and you can feel on every page just how personal a story this is for her.

Why is this the right time to bring HCC to comics?
Because we've teamed up with Titan Comics, one of the most talented publishers in the business. We know crime fiction inside and out, but they're the experts at making amazing comics – and it's their relationships with the artists and others in the comics world that will make Hard Case Crime Comics explosive.

Why should readers pick up HCC comics?
Because a great crime story will knock you on your ass and take your breath away. Because these comics will be like nothing else out there. Come on, be honest – don't you sometimes want something other than another superhero story, another zombie story? Something that could actually happen, only you hope it never happens to you? Something from the minds of masters like Max Allan Collins and Walter Hill and Christa Faust and Gary Phillips...? I know I do. If I weren't the guy publishing these, I'd be lined up at the register to buy them the day they came out. And that's the mark of a great comic.

(W) Alexander Braun, Winsor McCay

Meet Little Nemo, a diminutive hero of comic narrative, but one of the greatest dream voyagers of the 20th century. The master creation of Winsor McCay (1869-1934), restless sleeper Nemo inspired generations of artists with his weekly adventures from bed to Slumberland, a realm of colorful companions, psychedelic scenery, and thrilling escapades. Nemo's creator Winsor McCay was a founding figure in the modern American entertainment industry, above all with his revolutionary comics, which set standards for panel layout and storytelling technique, timing and pacing, and architectural and other detail that left an inestimable influence on subsequent artists, including Robert Crumb and Federico Fellini. A PIGGY'S TALE TRADE PAPERBACK

Recommended by Jonathan McKinney

Are you looking for a fun and entertaining all-ages story that will warm your heart? Look no further than A Piggy's Tale, a story from Bohemian Press about everyone's favorite three-legged superhero pup, now collected in trade paperback format.

Inspired by true events, A Piggy's Tale is one of triumph and resiliency. While volunteering on a veterinary campaign in the Galapagos, writer Tod Emko discovered a limping, malnourished dog without a home. Deciding to take in the dog, Tod nicknamed him Piggy, and became captivated by his perseverance and lovable attitude.

Earlier in life, Piggy lost a leg, but that didn't stop him from pushing forward. Within A Piggy's Tale, Tod and artist Ethan Young (creator of Nanjing: The Burning City from Dark Horse) take the awe-inspiring story and transform him into a larger-than-life superhero, who is capable of any tall task.

In addition to their creative output, Tod and Ethan donate proceeds from the book to the Darwin Animal Doctors. To find more information on the Darwin Animal Doctors and how you can help their cause, please visit darwinanimaldoctors.org.

THE WORLD'S FIRST DETECTIVE... ALONE ON THE PAGAN FRONTIER...

FROM MASTER STORYTELLER
PETER MILLIGAN
(X-MEN, DETECTIVE COMICS)
AND INCENDIARY ARTIST
JUAN JOSÉ RYP
(NINJAK)

Duty has led to darkness...

Dispatched to the remote outpost of Britannia by Rome's highest power, the ancient world's first detective - veteran legionnaire Antonius Axia - has found himself on a horrifying journey that will challenge everything he knows about death, destiny, and the limits of reality itself. But in this wild and pagan land, far removed from Nero's control and influence, how will he grapple with the witches, demons and deities that lurk just out of sight? These are aberrations beyond the comprehension of a citizen of history's most civilized empire...and, as Axia searches for the truth behind their making, he must first ask himself: Are these monsters truly creatures of myth... or creations of his own mind?

The answers will be found as comics legend Peter Milligan (Shade, the Changing Man) and incendiary artist Juan José Ryp (NINJAK, Clone) lead a phantasmagorical expedition in the lands between darkness, desire, and destruction in the pages of Valiant's latest prestige-format masterwork!

4001 A.D. TPB

The most ambitious comics event of 2016 brings war to the 41st century - with Rai leading the charge!

One hundred years from today, Father - the benevolent artificial intelligence that governs the island nation of Japan - will gain sentience. To defend its borders, Father will take drastic action by launching Japan into space...where its people will thrive in isolation, away from the overpopulated and resource-deprived planet below. Over the centuries, as New Japan orbits our increasingly unstable world, it will become a model society - one built on peace, prosperity... and Father's control.

A thousand years from today, Father will create the first Rai, founding a lineage of technologically enhanced heroes engineered to defend New Japan and sworn to protect it from all enemies. For hundreds of years into the future, the Rai will single-handedly enforce New Japan's justice well...and serve Father without question.

Now, at the dawn of 4001 A.D., the latest Rai is about to inherit the dark truth behind the origin of his kind...and discover the sinister secret at the heart of Father's existence. For New Japan to live, Earth must die...and as Rai challenges his former master for the first time in more than a millennium, the lone guardian of New Japan will be cast out of his own Father's kingdom...

Exiled from the only realm he's ever known, Rai now walks the ravaged world of 4001 A.D. in search of forgotten heroes like himself... on a mission to collect the last surviving legends of a broken planet...and to forge a rebellion with the power to bring the most advanced civilization in history crashing back down to Earth. New York Times best-selling writer Matt Kindt (DIVINITY II) and superstar artist Clayton Crain (X-Force) bring their startling vision of the year 4001 A.D. to new heights...with the fate of New Japan floating in the balance!

My Neighbor Seki is a collection of short stories that revolve around two classmates who sit at the back of their high school homeroom. In each chapter Seki devises a new way to kill time in his school desk, to best avoid boredom. And along the way, he ends up distracting the girl who sits next to him Rumi; who's mind goes wild as Seki pushes the limits of his disobediance. (W/A/CA) Ryoh Yasohachi

In an alternate world everyone is an immortal. There are no doctors or hospitals. Cemetaries are things of the past; some consider them to be legends or myths. But with immortality comes consequences, like the loss of some of humanities greatest gifts, including love. There are those who understand that and choose to die for the ability to experience such emotions again. The government is determined to erradicate those who take that path, however. Furin is tasked to protect mortals in a world where immortality is the norm. And she accomplishes this because by day she works for the very government agency assigned to terminate those mortals who seek love over eternal life. BIG TROUBLE IN LITTLE CHINA/ ESCAPE FROM NEW YORK #1

Recommended by Trevor Richardson

Like old Jack says, when the earth quakes, and the poison arrows fall from the sky, and the pillars of Heaven shake, and the Porkchop Express crosses over into an alternate reality in a flash of lightning, just look that big storm right square in the eye and say, "Give me your best shot, pal. I can take it."

With the full blessing of director John Carpenter, two iconic heroes turned cult classics thanks to Kurt Russell, a mullet, an eyepatch and a few machine guns, are about to collide. It all starts when Jack Burton drives his beloved truck into the dystopian "future" of Snake Plissken's 1997 – isn't that the same year Skynet originally went online? What's with you, 1997? When Snake finds out a man is running around with his same face, he goes gunning for Jack and shenanigans ensue, launching a savage road trip across a post-apocalyptic America to learn what weird magic has pulled Jack across worlds.

BOOM's take on Escape from New York and Big Trouble in Little China has been so true to the spirit of the work and everything that made 1980s action flicks so awesome that it seemed there really was no way to improve on a good thing. Turns out, there is, you just double your dose of Kurt Russell with an awesome crossover event penned by Greg Pak and drawn by Daniel Bayliss.

Hop behind the wheel with Jack and Snake and watch them drive faster than they can see right at the heart of evil because, in the end, it's all in the reflexes.

CASTLE
IN THE SKY
A FILM BY HAYAO MIYAZAKI

THE ART OF CASTLE IN THE SKY

Hayao Miyazaki's Castle in the Sky was the first feature film produced by the legendary Studio Ghibli. Sheeta, a girl who has the power to defy gravity, is on the run from pirates when she meets the young inventor Pazu. Together they explore the secrets of Laputa, a flying city constructed by a long-lost race of people. PIN-UP: GOOD GIRLS & BAD GIRLS HC

(W/A/CA) Maly Siri

Maly Siri's Pin-up Art Good Girls / Bad Girls raises two themes. On one side, the "Good Girls": the damsels with soft skin powdering their faces in front of the mirror, the Tahitian girls with enchanting smiles and the brave soldiers. Their charm is due to their sparkling characters and apparent candor. And on the other side, the "Bad Girls": the rouged vamps with sensuous looks, the spies, the melancholic blues singers and other misfits. This book is a rich and delicious homage inspired by the iconography of the 1930's to 50's, a concentrate of pure glamour, with a preface by Chantal Thomass. (STL018295) (C: 0-1-0)

SPACESHIPS: AN ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF THE REAL AND THE IMAGINED HC

(W/A/CA) Ron Miller

How have actual spaceships influenced the design of fictional ones like the Millenium Falcon and the starship Enterprise? Did a fiction series in Collier's magazine really inspire us to create real-life space stations like Mir and the ISS? How have our depictions of space travel developed as the reality of space travel changed? In his new book Spaceships: An Illustrated History of the Real and the Imagined, Ron Miller shows that when it comes to spacecraft, art actually does imitate life and, even more bizarrely, life imitates art. Miller takes readers on a visual journey through the history of the spaceship both in our collective imagination and in reality. (STL018508) (C: 0-1-0)

R. CRUMB SKETCHBOOK VOLUME 1: JUNE 1964-SEPTEMBER 1968 HC

From the very beginning, even before the sexual revolution made Robert Crumb the world's most celebrated underground cartoonist, he felt compelled to commit his sexual fantasies to paper. Once upon a time, he'd destroy them, fearful of others discovering his quirky tastes. Then he found that baring his soul provided a sort of therapy, leading him to immortalize every desire in pen and ink. This compact new edition, sourced from the same Robert Crumb Sketchbooks 1964–1982, offers the same high-quality obsession at a bargain price. Through satire, psychedelia, and outlandish sexually obsessed characters, 448 pages bring the best of Crumb's prolific mid-1960's period of June 1964 to September 1968. WHAT AM I DOING HERE? HC

(W/A/CA) Abner Dean

What Am I Doing Here? is a startling masterwork by one of the forgotten innovators of American comics. In 1945, after more than a decade as a commercial illustrator, Abner Dean invented a genre all his own: One might call it the Existential Gag Cartoon. He used the elegant draftsmanship and single-panel format of the standard cartoons of the day, but turned them to a deeper, stranger purpose. What Am I Doing Here? depicts a world at once alien and familiar, in which Dean's unclad Everyman searches for love, happiness, and the answers to life's biggest questions. KNIGHT RIDER: KITT CAR CHARGER

GPSes have gotten us closer to talking cars, but they're clearly not artificially intelligent the way K.I.T.T. was. Meet the Knight Rider K.I.T.T. Car USB Charger, which has two USB ports, each capable of charging almost any USB-powered device (one puts out 2.1 Amp and one puts out 1.0 Amp). But it also has that signature light sequence from K.I.T.T.'s voice box we all know and love, synced to respond to 11 different audio phrases from the TV show. And in case you ever need less '80s, there's a switch to turn the whole thing off or mute him. Possibly so your smart-mouthed car doesn't speak to the nice officer. STAR WARS: R2-D2 USB WALL CHARGER

It might be wise to use the Force, but the Force won't charge your gadgets. Instead power them with this little R2 unit. In this case, we're talking about the power of (you guessed it) electricity. This Star Wars R2-D2 AC / USB Power Station plugs into a Type B socket (US Standard) and in exchange provides 4 Type B sockets (US Standard) and 2 USB ports (2.1A and 1.0A). Just plug your gadgets and cables (AC or USB-powered) into one of these power strips, and they'll be ready to smuggle the plans to the Death Star quicker than you can say, "Help me, Obi Wan." Or, you know, after they get done charging. STAR WARS: DEATH STAR USB WALL CHARGER

Imagine if you could tap into the power of the Death Star. Somebody leaves a panel uncovered and bam. One super-long extension cord, and you're good to go. Now to borrow their cable. There's an easier and safer way to tap into the power of the Dark Side with this Star Wars Death Star USB Wall Charger. Measuring 2 3/4" across and extending 1 3/4" from the wall, it plugs into a grounded outlet and provides you 2 USB ports, one 2.1A and one 1.0A. Plus, it lights up when receiving power, so it's an easy tool to bring with you when you're testing breakers. STAR TREK SUSHI SET

Uhura has a secret. Uhura loves Argoan sushi. Now, the food synthesizers can make an almost acceptable version, but nothing beats the real thing. And when Uhura can get 100% real Argoan sushi, she has a whole ritual involving how to eat it. And she always, always, uses the Star Trek U.S.S. Enterprise Sushi Set she was given for her first anniversary onboard. And now you can have a Star Trek U.S.S. Enterprise Sushi Set of your very own. Set it on your table, and it looks like a mid-warp U.S.S. Enterprise NCC-1701 on a wooden base. But the wooden base is actually a sushi plate. Remove the top of the saucer section, and you have a little dish for your soy sauce. And slide out the warp effect from the nacelles and you'll have a pair of chopsticks. The Star Trek U.S.S. Enterprise Sushi Set is just the thing to elevate sushi ... into the final frontier! BAG OF HOLDING MESSENGER BAG

When the last d20 is rolled, and Tiamat's dying scream shakes the cavern walls, only two things remain: the distribution of experience points to the party, and loot. Your party's dwarf fighter, and that human paladin might be able to lug piles of gold and platinum, but your little gnome mage can't quite heft that much stuff. What to do? Luckily, amidst the ponderous piles of platinum lying about the place is a simple nondescript bag that everyone overlooked — except you, of course. Peering into the bag, you see nothingness, an almost infinite depth in which you can place way more loot than your entire party combined! While transdimensional space is, as yet, impossible in this plane of existence (Doctor Who fans, keep quiet for now), ThinkGeek Labs has developed our own messenger bag that comfortably carries way more than a bag of its size normally could! It's big enough to carry a 17" laptop, Large 3-ring binder, two college textbooks, two paperback books, Amazon Kindle, iPod, cellphone, cables, pencils, business cards, spare batteries ... we could go on and on. BLACK LIBRARY

WARHAMMER 40K:
EYE OF TERRA SC
(W) Various
An anthology of Horus Heresy tales written by some of Black Library's bestselling authors. Once, the title of Warmaster stood for honor, loyalty, and a fierce pride in the strength of the Space Marine Legions. But perhaps by following the myriad lines of destiny and defiance that were already woven around the primarchs and their sons, we may yet come to understand the bitterness that can eat away at even the most steadfast of souls… This Horus Heresy anthology contains fifteen short stories by authors such as Graham McNeill, Nick Kyme, Gav Thorpe, and many more. It also includes Aaron Dembski-Bowden's acclaimed novella Aurelian. (STL019508) (C: 0-1-2)
SC, 6x9, 416pgs, B&W..............$17.00

WARHAMMER 40K:
GREY KNIGHTS: SONS OF TITAN SC
(W) David Annandale
The Space Marine daemon-hunters pursue the followers of the Plague God across the battlefield of the Imperium. The Grey Knights are a myth, a secret Chapter of Space Marines that responds to the greatest of threats: daemonic incursions into the Emperor's realm. They are spoken of in legends, silver-armored heroes whose weapons blaze with holy fire and whose merest touch can destroy the servants of the Ruinous Powers. And the legends are true. In this collection of stories, a squad of Grey Knights commanded by the noble Justicar Styre battle the infernal followers of the Plague God across the Imperium. (STL019505) (C: 0-1-2)
SC, 6x9, 240pgs, B&W..............$16.00

WARHAMMER 40K:
ROBOUTE GUILLIMAN:
LORD OF ULTRAMAR HC
(W) David Annandale
Launch title in The Horus Heresy: Primarchs series, a brand new sequence of novels. Long before the coming of the Imperium, the realm of Ultramar was ruled by Roboute Guilliman, the last Battle King of Macragge. Even after learning of his true heritage as a primarch son of the Emperor of Mankind, he strove to expand his domain as efficiently and benevolently as possible, with the XIII Legion Ultramarines as his alone to command. Now, facing a rival empire on the ork-held world of Thoas, Guilliman must choose his weapons carefully, otherwise his dream of a brighter future could be lost forever. (STL019511) (C: 0-1-2)
HC, 6x9, 240pgs, B&W..............$19.00

WARHAMMER 40K:
SHADOW OF ULLANOR SC
(W) Rob Sanders
For mankind to survive, a last-ditch attempt to destroy the ork menace must succeed. The Imperium's attempts to defeat the ork menace seem doomed to failure; it is only a matter of time before the greenskins triumph, and mankind is wiped from the face of galactic map. Yet there is some cause for hope — the Imperial Fists Chapter is reformed, and a few Sisters of Silence yet survive. Supported by the full military might and technology of the Adeptus Mechanicus, the Space Marines head to the orks' home world one final time. This time there will be no retreat, no surrender. They must succeed… or die in the attempt. (STL019509) (C: 0-1-2)
SC, 6x9, 256pgs, B&W..............$17.50

WARHAMMER 40K:
THE LAST SON OF DORN HC
(W) Various
Koorland, the last son of Dorn, finally confronts the Beast in battle. The first attempt to attack the orks' home world has failed, but the Imperium is not defeated yet. New, more flexible fighting teams of Adeptus Astartes have been assembled — the Death Watch. Allies from the Imperium's past have also pledged their support, the legendary Sisters of Silence, female warriors with anti-psyker powers. With new troops, and revised tactics, Koorland leads a second attack against the orks' home world. This time, the attack goes better, and Koorland is able to confront the Beast in battle. But the creature is truly a monster, more than a match for even a primarch. How can the last son of Dorn possibly prevail? (STL019510) (C: 0-1-2)

CHRIS ROBERSON:
NOW HE'S A POWER IN THE 'VERSE TOO

Zombie creator and SF author Chris Roberson comes to Dark Horse this October, writing their latest mini-series based on the popular Joss Whedon space western, Serenity! Mal and the crew of the Firefly class spaceship come to the aid of a young friend whose sister has gone missing. Chris generous took time out of his busy schedule to talk to our own Vince Brusio about this upcoming series…

PREVIEWS: How did you get this project off the ground? Serenity is a big toy to play with in the sandbox, with a considerable fan base. How did you move the needle to show you were the guy that could fly the spaceship without bumping into a wormhole?

Chris Roberson: I was just lucky enough to be in the right place at the right time, I think. The Aliens miniseries I did a couple of years ago was my first time working with Dark Horse and editor Scott Allie, and it was just a great experience in general. So when that book was wrapping up Scott asked me if I had any affinity for Serenity, and whether I'd be interested in scripting the follow-up to the Leaves on the Wind miniseries that Zack Whedon and Georges Jeanty had done. I like to think that I was restrained and cool when I shouted "YES!", but that might just be wishful thinking on my part.

P: Tell us about your affection for Serenity. What is it about this property that energizes you? What possibilities does it present?

CR: I'm a huge fan of science fiction and space opera, but also a big history buff, so when the first episode of Firefly aired it was like the show had been tailor-made for me. The fact that it was made by the guy responsible for two of my all-time favorite genre shows to that point (Buffy and Angel, naturally) only sweetened the deal. But as much as I love the historically-inspired backstory and the inventive science-fictional setting, it was really the characters that captivated me. Getting the chance to help chart their future adventures is an incredible honor.

P: Without spoiling the book, what teaser information can you give us about your storyline? Any Easter Eggs carefully lodged into a nook or cranny?

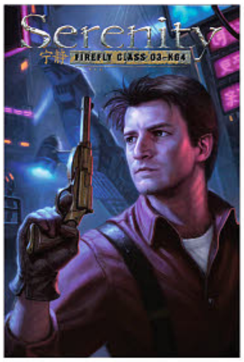
CR: We're picking up threads from the TV show and the movie, but also things that were introduced in Leaves on the Wind. The 'Verse is just such an expansive and compelling setting that there were lots of places that we could have chosen to visit, but it was the characters' relationships with one another and how those have evolved that we decided to focus on.

P: Have you seen the artwork for this book? What were your initial reactions to the pencils?

CR: I was thrilled to learn that Georges Jeanty would be returning to do the art duties for this new miniseries, and every page that I've seen has been a knockout. This book is going to look gorgeous!

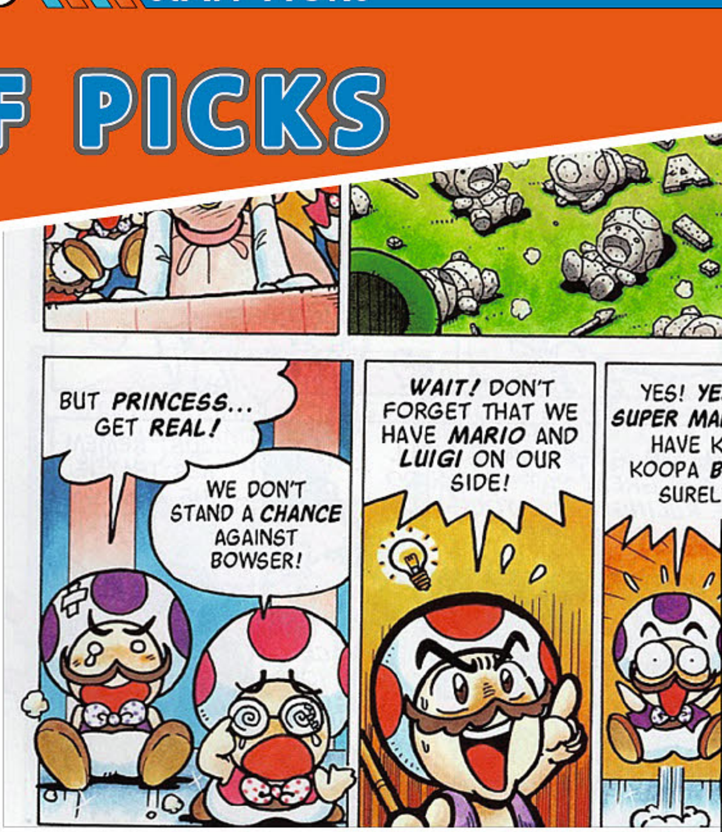
P: How do you come away from this project as a writer? Did you try something new? Realize a dream? Binge on the TV show for 48 hours straight before you hit your script and this somehow made you Super Serenity Scribe of the century?

CR: I'd actually just finished one of my regular re-watches of the whole series and the movie when I was offered the job, and in the time since I've watched the whole thing through again several more times. Getting paid to watch one of your favorite shows and then go off and make up new adventures for the characters is a pretty great gig if you can get it!



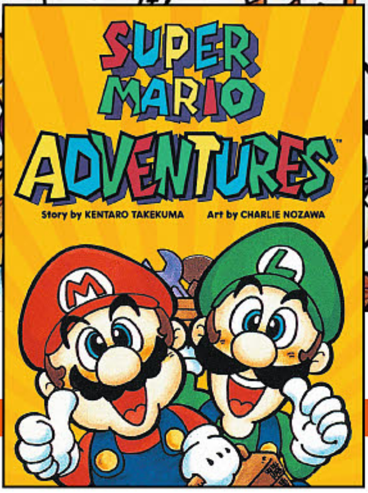
Be sure to check out additional artwork and details about the series on page 44 of this issue in the Dark Horse Comics section!

STAFF PICKS



RARELY SEEN SINCE THEIR FIRST EARLY '90S PUBLICATION IN NINTENDO POWER MAGAZINE, KENTARO TAKEKUMA'S SUPER MARIO BROS. COMICS PRESENTS THE WORLD OF MARIO AND LUIGI AS THEY WERE ORIGINALLY PRESENTED TO U.S. AUDIENCES. WITH MARIO MAKING A VIDEO GAME COMEBACK WITH MARIO MAKER AND SUPER SMASH BROS., A WHOLE NEW GENERATION OF FANS WILL SOON BE ABLE TO ENJOY THESE CLASSIC TALES!

SUPER MARIO ADVENTURES GN



Recommended by Sarah

Hey paisanos! You can finally give your old Nintendo Power magazines a rest, because VIZ has collected Super Mario Adventures, originally published in those issues, into a much friendlier format! Great care has gone into preserving Kentaro Takekuma's story and Tamakichi Sakura's original art—the books will be printed at magazine trim size and will match the previously released Legend of Zelda: Link to the Past GN (MAR151495) already on shelves!

In addition to being a beloved franchise with major nostalgic ties to 1980's video gaming culture and childhoods all the way up to the present, this particular collection is a real slice of history! Princess Peach was still Princess Toadstool to the US markets back when this series was originally commissioned for and released in Nintendo Power in the early 90s. Japanese mangaka hadn't really carved a niche for themselves in the North American comic market, so this widely-distributed magazine was a "first exposure" to manga visual tropes for a large portion of the 80's and 90's generation of comic readers. Timed to sustain excitement in the new Super Nintendo System, this particular comic did the heavy lifting for fleshing out the world outside the game for Super Mario World (the first one with Yoshi). This was also a major spotlight on characters outside of Mario himself! Princess Toadstool, Luigi, King Koopa, and the Koopa Kids got an abundant amount of character development that couldn't be given in the classic side-scrollers. These characterizations have persisted throughout the license since. It's so great to see it all in print again—letting these characters shine for the next generation of readers!

STAR TREK: BOLDLY GO #1

Recommended by Matthew

Star Trek has always been part of my life. My father experienced the original show when he was younger and passed that experience on to me. I grew up with Star Trek: The Next Generation, and I still vividly remember sitting on the couch with my dad, getting ready to watch the season 5 premier in glorious standard definition.

Today Star Trek: The Next Generation is considered by many to be an iconic series, and its success proved to a lot of people that the Star Trek brand not only still had legs but could appeal to generations that were born long after the original series was in re-runs. Now with the rebooted movies, we are seeing things come full circle. New eyes are seeing these characters for the first time and now they have a massive library of movies, TV, and comics for the first time.

Star Trek: Boldy Go #1 from writer Mike Johnson (Star Trek/Green Lantern: The Spectrum War) and artist Tony Shasteen will be required reading for new fans of the movies. Picking up right after the events of Star Trek Beyond. The adventure always continues. There are always strange new worlds to explore, new civilization to seek, and a brighter future for all of us in Gene Roddenberry's universe.

A PIGGY'S TALE TRADE PAPERBACK

Recommended by Jonathan

Are you looking for a fun and entertaining all-ages story that will warm your heart? Look no further than A Piggy's Tale, a story from Bohemian Press about everyone's favorite three-legged superhero pup.

Inspired by true events, A Piggy's Tale is one of triumph and resilience. While volunteering on a veterinary campaign in the Galapagos, writer Tod Emko discovered a limping, malnourished dog without a home. Deciding to take in the dog, Tod nicknamed him Piggy, and became captivated by his perseverance and lovable attitude.

Earlier in life, Piggy lost a leg, but that didn't stop him from pushing forward. Within A Piggy's Tale, Tod and artist Ethan Young (creator of Nanjing: The Burning City from Dark Horse) take the awe-inspiring story and transform him into a larger-than-life superhero, who is capable of any tall task.

In addition to their creative output, Tod and Ethan donate proceeds from the book to the Darwin Animal Doctors. To find more information on the Darwin Animal Doctors and how you can help their cause, please visit darwinanimaldoctors.org.

BIG TROUBLE IN LITTLE CHINA/ ESCAPE FROM NEW YORK #1

Recommended by Trevor

Like old Jack says, when the earth quakes, and the poison arrows fall from the sky, and the pillars of Heaven shake, and the Porkchop Express crosses over into an alternate reality in a flash of lightning, just look that big storm right square in the eye and say, "Give me your best shot, pal. I can take it."

With the full blessing of director John Carpenter, two iconic heroes turned cult classics thanks to Kurt Russell, a mullet, an eyepatch and a few machine guns, are about to collide. It all starts when Jack Burton drives his beloved truck into the dystopian "future" of Snake Plissken's 1997. When Snake finds out a man is running around with his same face, he goes gunning for Jack and shenanigans ensue, launching a savage road trip across a post-apocalyptic America to learn what weird magic has pulled Jack across worlds.

BOOM's take on Escape from New York and Big Trouble in Little China has been so true to the spirit of the work and everything that made 1980s action flicks so awesome that it seemed there really was no way to improve on a good thing. Turns out, there is, you just double your dose of Kurt Russell with an awesome crossover event penned by Greg Pak and drawn by Daniel Bayliss.

Hop behind the wheel with Jack and Snake and watch them drive faster than they can see right at the heart of evil because, in the end, it's all in the reflexes.
